SOURCE

on Ruegen Island (N 55/P 76) that all troops stationed in Jueterbog (N 52/E 69) would be transferred to Ruegen Island. The officers said that "many more" soldiers would come to Ruegen. They stated that the headquarters would be located in Bergen and Prora. Source determined that troop trains had continued to arrive until 27 May, although in lesser numbers. Stubbenkammer and Der Bug area were placed off limits. The Lietzow-Binz railroad line which had been dismantled in 1945 was being reconstructed by a large number of laborers.

* ☐ Comment. No previous information is available to indicate a transfer or preparations for a transfer of the entire Jueterbog garrison. Previous information indicated that the 4th AT Arty Brig (US) moved from Jueterbog to Ruegen Island during the period from 8 to 13 May 1952 and that another train went to Ruegen on 24 May 1952. See ☐ The restricted Stubbenkammer area has already been reported by another source. ☐ The Der Bug area is a narrow peninsula south of Dranske.
